1. Status of publications for []
I learned yesterday that [] has replaced []
[] as the Agency contact man at the Pentagon.
[] said he had been doing liaison work with Cy Vance and Dick Helms asked him to take over [] responsibilities also. [] talked to [] Special Assistant to [] just returned from Europe and is still wading through the publications left there during Bud's first visit. [] plans to indicate [] and his interest in these publications as soon as possible. Meanwhile, he welcomes the proposed monthly listing which we plan to send to him sometime this month summarizing our most recent publications.

2. Vietnam Briefing this Friday. All components in the Directorate have been contacted and we will have final information by noon today. It appears that the figure will total somewhere between 70 and 80.

3. [] Briefing. As I mentioned to you the other day, the [] briefing, tentatively scheduled for 14 February, will probably be postponed until the Army agrees to provide a sanitized briefing which does not require the [] clearance. I expect a call from the Pentagon sometime today with further information.

Carl:

When you decide how much time during the course of the day you wish to give these visitors, would you please let me know. I am particularly interested in what time to recommend that the group present themselves here on the morning of 21 February.

Attached is a map indicating the directions for getting to [] house for lunch on the 21st.
